WORK HISTORY

Corvit System

Faisalabad, Punjab
Feb 2023 - Jul 2023

● Full-Stack Web Developer

Successfully completed my certification in Full-Stack Web Developer. Explored the ins and outs of both front-end and back-end development technologies. Dived into the world of building websites, understanding how they look and work. It's like crafting a digital space that responds and interacts smoothly. Got hands-on crafting responsive and dynamic web applications. Imagine creating websites that adapt to different screens and come to life with dynamic features. I've been right in the midst of making these digital wonders. Became skilled in using various programming languages, frameworks, and databases for web development. It's like having a toolkit with different tools for different tasks. I've learned to choose the right ones to make websites not just functional but impressive. Used my problem-solving skills to make web solutions efficient and user-friendly. Every hurdle is a puzzle waiting to be solved. I enjoy figuring out how to make websites work better and be easy for everyone to use. I'm continually learning and working with these technologies, always striving to add more tools to my digital toolkit.

Ashraf Sewing Machine Center

Sangla Hill, Pakistan
May 2019 - Jan 2023

● Supply Coordinator

I worked at Ashraf Sewing Machine Center as a Supply Coordinator from May 2019 to January 2023. In this role, my main job was to make sure we always had what we needed for our work. I managed the buying and supplying of materials, making sure everything ran smoothly. I kept our inventory organized and made sure our workplace was neat and well-stocked. I took pride in ensuring everything was in the right place at the right time.
